The Four Star rated Dryfesdale House Hotel is situated in a commanding position affording some of the most beautiful views of Dumfries and Galloway. It is part of the prestigious Best Western hotel group and is steeped in history going back to 1762 – it has been expertly modernised to retain original features without compromising on the up to date amenities you would expect from a first class hotel. We recommend that you visit the hotel web site and take the virtual tour to fully appreciate the quality of this venue – www.dryfesdalehotel.co.uk
